

Attention FDA

5724 '00 MAR 22 AIO :39

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No - I should not be forced to have a medical exam before purchasing a hearing aid. If so, YES the FDA should pay for it.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No - The FDA should not have the Constitutional Right to tell people what they can or cannot do. This country is overloaded with rules and regulations - and people need to be able to control their own lives - instead of being robots!

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes - Anyone should be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail.
